

It is about time someone realized that my phone line belongs to me and not the marketing people.

I haven't any control over this and yet I pay the bill.

The same rules should apply to my computer and on line services, I pay this bill not the marketing people.

Thank you Mr. Powell for standing up for the people, you are a chip off the old block.

Bob Kaiser